General information website for LIBSTAFF:

<https://mailman.rice.edu/mailman/listinfo/libstaff>

This page can be used to request being subscribed to the listserv, unsubscribe, set messages to arrive in bulk or individually, or get a reminder of the password automatically created for you when you were subscribed (needed to access the archives)

To get your password, put your email in the last entry well and click "Unsubscribe or edit options". On the next screen you can request your password, or reset it to something you can more easily remember!

To get to the archives, go to the main information page or go directly to

<https://mailman.rice.edu/mailman/private/libstaff/>

entering your password where prompted.

Note that the archives go back to August 1996, and sort by month; you can sort within a month's postings by subject or author.
