Use at as an alarm clock

> at and batch read commands from standard input or a specified file which are to be executed at a later time, using /bin/sh. – man page

We can use at as an alarm clock

```
$ at now+5min
$ at> music123 /home/ian/Music/a.ogg
at> Ctrl-D
```

```
$ at 18:10
```

```
atq: list the at queue.
atrm: remove an at job.

music123 is a shell around various command line programs to play music files. You can install it by

```
$ sudo apt-get install music123
```
